

To Whom It My Concern,

The individual presenting this letter to you is a current patient of Hammond Chiropractic. Our patients have been instructed to share this letter with you to allow them to come to our office for care during the current Stay at Home order.

According to state laws Hammond Chiropractic is considered an Essential Business and will continue to remain open and operate during the current crisis. To be specific, Hammond Chiropractic is part of the Essential Critical Infrastructure in the following category that is permitted to remain open:

- Healthcare Facility

Please give this individual due consideration during the crisis, as their care at Hammond Chiropractic is helping them be as healthy and pain free as possible.

If you have questions concerning the authenticity of the letter, please contact Hammond Chiropractic at (219) 932-8900.

Thank you for your cooperation.

Sincerely,

Ronald E. Daulton, Jr., DC, FICPA